Real refs. A real timer. A real score book keeper. A real trainer. Two real announcers. A really cool trophy. (No one seems to be able to find that AlgoTrotter Trophy even though it is plain sight. Isn't that the best way to be hidden?) And of course a really, really good time. That's what I promise on Friday night at the Seniors versus Faculty Basketball game at 7 in CW's very real gym. We're also real excited to have the Dance Team perform for us at halftime along with a half court challenge with real basketballs. There will also be Shouts Outs during the game to your favorite players or non-players. Here's hoping your presence is a reality!

Attention Meditation Club Members: Meditation is cancelled for this week only. See you next week!
