What are 3.14% of sailors? (See the answer at the end of the following announcement.)

The annual Pi Recitation contest will be held Monday, March 14, during MPP in the auditorium. If you would like to be a competitor, let your math teacher, Mr. Dietrich, or Mrs. Schaeffer know approximately how many decimal places of Pi you are able to recite. Get an MPP pass if you are going to compete or if you would like to watch the competition. Answer to riddle: Pi-rates

Meditation Club Announcement: Members & persons interested in joining, our next meditation will be on Thursday, March 10, in the auditorium during MPP. Please bring a towel or yoga mat, which you can label with your name and drop off in the Counseling Office when you pick up your pass to attend. You must see Mrs. Strausser for a pass and don't forget to dress comfortably. See you Thursday!

Thank you once again, student body, for your tremendous response to our effort to raise funds to defeat childhood cancer and for your participation in Weiser's first ever Mini-THON. Through your efforts we exceeded our goal and raised more than $18,000. We are already planning next year's Mini-THON and are opening the application process for potential committee heads. If you are interested in serving as a committee head for next year's Mini-THON, please pick up an application from Mr. Dietrich in C203 or Mrs. Reber in B106. The completed applications are due to either of us by Friday, March 18.
