Need Community Service Hours? Check the Community Service Schoology page for the latest opportunities to earn hours!!

Old Dry Road Farm festival, Sunday September 25 from 11 am to 5 pm. Help is needed doing crafts with kids, dipping candles, churning butter, and maybe working at one or two of the other concession stands. Email Mrs. Fry at frygarden@comcast.net for more info and to sign up. Costumes provided!

Juniors or Seniors interested in attaining recognition as a member of the National Honor Society should access and complete the information pages found within the W-drive in the C-wing folder and within the Harman folder. All word processed information pages must be handed in person to Mr. Harman in C207 by 11:00am Friday September 23.

Art Club will be holding a mandatory meeting on Friday, September 16 (change of date). If you cannot make the meeting but wish to be a member of Art Club, please see Mrs. Alexander before Wednesday’s meeting or you will not be placed on the roster.

Any student who applied for a parking pass and hasn’t received it can pick it up in the high school office.

This week’s theme for the football game is “Red, White, and Blue,” so come sporting your USA gear! See you in the student section!

ATTENTION STUDENTS: Penn State Berks is offering an SAT Review course to Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors beginning October 27 through December 1, 2016. Classes will run Monday and Thursday evenings from 6:00 to 8:00 pm and review Math and English/Grammar concepts, review test taking strategies, and help students optimize their test scoring potential. This class is designed to accommodate and inform students about the changes made by the SAT College Board that took effect in March 2016. Stop by the Counseling Office for a Registration form or for online registration visit <http://www.berks.psu.edu/CE/SAT-prep-courses.htm>.

ATTENTION JUNIORS AND SENIORS: We will be submitting a list of juniors and seniors and their contact information to the Armed Services. If you did not remove your name last year and would like it removed this year, stop in the Counseling office by Friday, September 30th.

Rosalie Brunner, grade 12 was selected as the Carpenter Science Student of the Month for September. Rosalie receives a $500 award and will be featured in Voices. Her current research is in Microfluidics as she is engineering a convection-enhanced delivery catheter design. Additionally, she is considering microfluidic therapies for glial brain and brain stem tumors.

The following homecoming representatives need to hand in their information paperwork to Mrs. Witman ASAP!!!
 Tabby Wirebach, Devon Gerena, Diandra Toro, Caitlyn Reitz, Jack Seale

The homecoming Spirit Games have been selected, and now student volunteers are needed to help determine the most spirited class of 2016!

Monday – The Poison Apple – 1 student from each grade needed to participate in a last-man-standing style game where the person who bites the “poisoned” apple is out. Losers get turned into a ‘candied apple’ with the works! (Caution – you WILL get messy!)

Tuesday – Disney Villain Mix and Match – 1 student from each grade needed to participate in a matching contest – can you pair up the Disney hero with his/her villain before anyone else?

Wednesday – Remy’s Blind Taste Test – 1 student from each grade needed. Students will be blindfolded and then fed a variety of foods (nothing disgusting this year, we promise!). The student who can correctly identify the most foods will win.

Thursday – To Kiss a Prince/Princess – 1 student from each grade needed to participate in a ‘pin the tail on the donkey’ style game...with a twist.

Sign up with Mrs. Osman in D110!

The homecoming door decorating contest will take place this year with judging happening on Thursday, September 22nd after school. Winners will be announced on Friday, September 23rd. The first place winners of the door decorating contest will win free admission to the homecoming football game, paid for by the Renaissance Club. Criteria are as follows:

First Place: Best Overall – Will incorporate use of this year’s homecoming theme (Disney), will represent the club or homeroom, and will demonstrate school spirit through the use of obvious hard work and effort.

Second Place: Most artistic – Will demonstrate excellent artistic skills and use of theme to produce an especially creative door

Third Place: Most School Spirited – Will show true CW spirit with or without the use of this year’s theme

The CW Homecoming Parade Float contest will be judged during the parade on September 23rd. Clubs or sports wishing to participate should speak with Mrs. Witman if they have not already done so. The winning float will demonstrate the best representation of the group that organized it and will in some way incorporate this year’s homecoming theme (Disney). The winning group will have their name and an image of their float displayed in the Renaissance Showcase in the cafeteria lobby.

Homecoming is next week, and you know what that means...SPIRIT WEEK!

Theme Days are:

Monday, Sept 19 – Sleeping Beauty’s Pajama Day – Just remember to stay awake during class!

Tuesday, Sept 20 – Inside Out Day – Let your emotions decide what you wear...then flip it!

Wednesday, Sept 21 – Mickey Day – What’s a Disney theme without a day dedicated to the mouse who started it all?

Thursday, Sept 22 – Royalty Day – Whether you are a prince or a princess, let’s see some tiaras, crowns, suits, and gowns!

Friday, Sept 23 – Anna and Elsa’s Blue and White Day – Arendelle might be frozen, but with those colors, Weiser will bring the HEAT!

Attention 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grade boys: Come out and cheer on the junior and senior girls for this year’s powder puff game. The game is Thursday September 22nd at 7:00 pm. You may sign up in Mrs. Prohaska’s room C210 at any time during the day.
