The right to food is a basic human right, but still 850 million people globally live with chronic hunger. Women make up 60% of the worlds' hungry and almost 5 million children under 5 years old die of malnutrition every year. Every single human being should have access to adequate food. Help change this should into a do by bringing in canned food!

Washington DC trip information is posted outside C-109. Please check the list for your walking group and bus assignment. See Mr. Rohm with any questions.

Attention wrestlers: There will be a meeting for all student interested in wrestling on Tuesday, October 20 during MPP in the auditorium. Please stop by the office for a pass.

Attention Juniors: For those of you who were at the meeting on Wednesday, thank you for your prompt arrival and for your attention during the meeting. For those of you who missed the Junior Class Meeting, please stop by A101 or A102 to pick up a fundraising packet.

BCTV Gen Gap: Please excuse the following students during block three on Friday, October 16 to participate in the live broadcast of BCTV Bridging the Generation Gap: Matt Duong, Priscilla Olivares, Taylor Messner, Tyler Ogurcak, Amber Lantz, Andrew Granus, Christian Vega, Bianca Nelson. The students should report to the TV studio at the beginning of block three and will eat D lunch. The topic for discussion is: debates useful or useless; candidates/election

Do you want to end hunger? Do you have extra cans of food and other non-perishable items laying around at home? Do you enjoy a complimentary breakfast? If so, help your first block class collect as many canned foods as possible to compete to win a FREE BREAKFAST! Food drive runs Tuesday, October 6th through Friday, October 16th.

The 2015-2016 MUSICAL ANNOUNCEMENT MEETING will be held on Tuesday, October 20! Join us to find out this year's show, meet the production team, and get information for auditions. JUNIORS! Interested in pursuing a career in the healthcare industry? Meet with Kelly Ruth, RN, Instructor of the Medical Health Professions Program offered through Penn State Berks, The Reading Hospital & Medical Center and Berks Career & Technology Center. The program exposes high school seniors to various healthcare professions, while combining high level academics with the opportunity to shadow health care professionals and earn college credits. Ms. Ruth will be visiting our school on Friday, October 16th @ 12:45. Stop by the Counseling Office to sign up and get a pass.

Attention Seniors – If you are applying to a college with a November 1st deadline your transcript request form MUST be turned into Mrs. Cooper no later than this Friday, October 16th! Transcript request forms require 5-10 school days to process.

Golfers: Please make sure you return your golf bag and polo to Mr. Serfass as soon as possible.

Berks Career and Technology Center applications for the 2016-17 school year are now available in the High School Counseling Department. Please return completed applications to the counseling department no later than 11/20/15.

Attention all Musical students: There are still a few seats left on the trip to NY on November 18 to see "Finding Neverland". This is open to new and current musical, tech, & pit students. See Mrs. Devine in C105 for more info.

Instructions for Winter Sports:

- If an athlete played a fall sport, they will need to complete a Winter Re-certification form. They are available in the high school office, middle school office, or on the Sports website. If any injury has occurred since the initial physical was done, a completed Section 8, signed by a Physician, must be submitted.
- If an athlete completed a physical form and turned it in earlier this year for a winter sport, they should already be on a sports roster. They can stop in the high school office and check with Mrs. Bright.
- If an athlete did not play a fall sport and did not complete a physical packet yet and would like to play a winter sport, they should complete a full physical packet and turn it into the high school or middle school office. Section 6 needs to be completed and signed by a physician.

Volunteer Opportunities: The Fall/Winter Volunteer Opportunities can be found on the Conrad Weiser High School Home page on www.conradweiser.org. Look for "Community Service Info" under Quick Links on the right hand side of the page. New Opportunities are added weekly so check the list frequently!

Attention all students: Any student who is interested in the Military for a career or would like to walk with the Veterans on Wednesday, November 11th at the Veterans Day Walk, please see Mr. Bright in C107 or Mr. Musser in C112 for more details.

Will the following students please see Mr. Bright in C107 regarding the Veterans Day Walk: Kristen Moyer, Brendon Short, Diandra Toro, Elijah Bowers, Autumn Beane, Zach Welcomer.

Attention students: Bored? Have some free time? Do you not like that people are starving in the world? Go to the W drive and access the "FreeRice_link" document to read about an organization that will donate 10 grains of rice for every answer you get correct. There is a variety of topics and your participation is not limited, so go on and help some people today without leaving your seat/phone.
