Cancer kills more children in the United States each year than any other disease. The Four Diamonds mission is to conquer childhood cancer by assisting children treated at Penn State Hershey Children's Hospital and their families through superior care, comprehensive support, and innovative research. Get involved in the planning of the first ever CW Mini-THON as we join the crusade to conquer childhood cancer. Sign up for a committee outside of C203 or B106. The committees will meet this Friday during MPP.

There will be no SADD meeting today (Tuesday) during MPP.

The Tolkien Club will be having its 4th meeting this week on Wednesday 10/21 in C107 during MPP. If students need a pass they can stop by the Social Studies IEP after block 2 to get one.

Attention FBLA members: see Mr. Noss to sign-up for this year's competitions. There are over 50 different events all members are encouraged to participate. There is also a meeting for the members traveling to Penn State this weekend on Wednesday during MPP see Mr. Noss for a pass.

Thanks to all who participated in our World Food Day canned food drive! This year we collected more than last year, donating a total of 372 non-perishable items to the CW Food Pantry, with Mrs. Ciemiewicz's first block Contemporary Issues class collecting a total of 109 cans, with Mrs. Moore's first block class collecting 51 cans. Mrs. Moore's class will be receiving the breakfast, while Mrs. Ciemiewicz will be donating $1 for every can collected in all her classes to the Greater Berks Food Banks.

Attention all Musical students: There are still a few seats left on the trip to NY on November 18 to see "Finding Neverland". This is open to new and current musical, tech, & pit students. The 2nd installment is now due! See Mrs. Devine in C105 for more info.

Get Away at your library during Teen Read Week™, October 18 - 24, 2015. Teen Read Week spotlights all the great resources and activities available to help teens build literacy skills while reading for the fun of it. This year's theme encourages teens to escape from the day to day grind by picking up something to read. The LMC has a variety of resources for you —fantasy novels, sci-fi, beach reads, travel books, tales of adventure and escape, and more! Join the conversation on Twitter with #TRW15 or #cwlmc

This is Teen Read Week! This is your last chance to vote for the 2015 Teens' Top Ten, please vote your favorite titles before October 24! The list of the nominees are on display in the LMC. Voting links are on the homepage of the LMC website and in Schoology on the LMC group page!

Spanish Club will meet today, Tuesday, Oct. 20. Pick up your pass in D112. We will be working on our "Day of the Dead" display.

Instructions for Winter Sports:

- If an athlete played a fall sport, they will need to complete a Winter Re-certification form. They are available in the high school office, middle school office, or on the Sports website. If any injury has occurred since the initial physical was done, a completed Section 8, signed by a Physician, must be submitted.
- If an athlete completed a physical form and turned it in earlier this year for a winter sport, they should already be on a sports roster. They can stop in the high school office and check with Mrs. Bright.

- If an athlete did not play a fall sport and did not complete a physical packet yet and would like to play a winter sport, they should complete a full physical packet and turn it into the high school or middle school office. Section 6 needs to be completed and signed by a physician.

Volunteer Opportunities: The Fall/Winter Volunteer Opportunities can be found on the Conrad Weiser High School Home page on www.conradweiser.org. Look for "Community Service Info" under Quick Links on the right hand side of the page. New Opportunities are added weekly so check the list frequently!
