Day 1

Entrée (select one): Subway Day

Sides (select at least two): Fresh Veggie Bar, Applesauce, Fresh Fruit

Milk (may select one)

TO ALL ATHLETES (fall through spring): You are to attend a MANDATORY presentation on Tuesday, December 8th at 1:40 in the auditorium. You are expected to be there even if you have senior leave. You may not leave the presentation early. The only students who will be excused are those that are involved in the math competition in the cafeteria. The program will last until approximately 2:30. Your coaches are aware of this and have been invited to attend as well.

Attention Students! Participate in Hour of Code during Computer Science Education Week (December 7-13) on Thursday December 10th during MPP. Plans include having groups experience different activities such as coding session, Sphero ball programming, and showing some student created programs. See the LMC for a pass!

Attention Meditation Club Members!! There will be a mandatory meeting in the Counseling Office during MPP on Monday, December 7 to discuss plans for next semester, to complete a survey, and to have our yearbook photo taken. See Mrs. Strausser for a pass.

HOLIDAY DANCE TICKETS – It's not too late! If you would like to purchase a ticket please stop and see Mr. Rohm in C-109. Tickets are $12.50. They will not be sold at the door. The Dance is Saturday, December 12th from 7-10pm.

Track athletes interested in hurdling this spring should plan on attending a hurdling workout on Wednesday 12/9 after school. We will meet in the open area near the vending machines. Please bring clothes appropriate for inside and outside. We may try to go to the track depending on the weather.

JUNIORS AND SENIORS: Upcoming college/recruiter visit:

- Reading Hospital School of Health Sciences Tuesday December 15th @ 9:00

Roses are red, pink, peach, and yellow. Buy a rose for that special girl or fellow!! You only have until this Thursday to order roses at lunch or during MPP. Cost is $2.50.

The 3rd PA Math League contest of the year will be held tomorrow, Dec. 8, in the cafeteria during MPP. See your math teacher or Mrs. Schaeffer in C208 for a pass. Bring a calculator.

There will be no MPP in the library on Monday, December 7. On Tuesday, December 8, the library will only give MPP passes to seniors coming in to work on their presentations.

Social Studies club will have a meeting Tuesday Dec. 8th during MPP in room C113. The club will be taking a picture for the yearbook. See Mrs. Luckenbill or your Social Studies teacher for a pass.

GSA members and friends: See you on Monday, December 7, during MPP in the chorus room. See Mrs. Strausser in the counseling office for a pass.

FCS will meet today during MPP in room C207.

Attention all students: Mr. Serfass has agreed to extend his beard challenge. If 50 students raise $50 or more by December 31, Mr. Serfass will shave his beard. Let's make sure he comes back to school for the new year with a brand new look!

The World Affairs Council of Reading has graciously offered for their December speaker to speak at CW on Wednesday, December 9 from 9:30-10:15. Carol Jenkins will be speaking on The Power of Education to Change Lives Globally. Please get a pass in the LMC or from Mrs. Reber in B106 if you are interested. Please note: You will need to get prior permission from your block 2 teacher before attending.

Are you a history nerd? Conrad Weiser's History Bowl Team is back after a two year hiatus. History Bowl is a quiz bowl style competition where teams compete directly against one another, answering questions about anything in history. The team participates in one competition, scheduled for late February. If this sounds interesting to you, please see Mr. Rothenberger in C114 before winter break to sign up.

Well... Mr. Serfass gets to keep his beard! Although the Mini-THON fundraising efforts over the holiday break was impressive, we fell short of hitting the challenge of having 50 students raise $50 or more. Shout out to Rachel Palm, Jessica Eisenhardt, Bryn Werley, and Kaitlyn Granger for raising over $100 each. Keep fundraising and remember, this is For The Kids!

As of last night, only 45 students registered for Mini-THON on Donor Drive. This is shy way below the 100 students needed to have Mr. Neider shave his beloved beard! There is still time, however, to meet the other three challenges:

- 100 students need to raise $100 or more by February 4, 2016 for Mr. Galtere to shave his head.
- And finally, if we raise $15,000 or more by February 19, 2016, Mrs. Sweigart will be duct taped to a wall during spring fling to have pies thrown at her!

While these challenges are all in good fun, please remember the reason for our mission! Only 80% on children diagnosed with cancer survive their battles. Let's each do our part to help conquer childhood cancer. The holiday break is the perfect time to start your personal fundraising efforts!
