Wednesday is Decade Day (dress from the 50's, 60's, 70's, 80's, etc.)

Thursday is Pajama and Stuffed Animal Day

Friday is Blue and White Day – Wear your Team Color!!

Congratulations to Destiny Papovich and Sterling Gerhart. You are the winners of the library's "Shelfies" drawing. Thanks to all who participated and be on the lookout for the library's next upcoming contest!

Just a reminder...students need to have their ID's in order to checkout library books. Once permanent ID's are distributed, please make sure to secure them in the pocket of your planner for safe keeping. If you lose your ID, a new one can be purchased from the library for $3.

~ Calling All 7th and 8th Graders... Our First Dance of the year, Hosted by your CWMS Cheerleaders is being held TONIGHT... Time is 6pm-8pm
Cost is only $5.00 Please remember your temporary Student IDs...
Our theme this year is Scouts for Autism so please wear something Purple....
Come out and enjoy the time of your life.... See you there!

~Clubs & Activities~

This year we will be opening Reading Olympics to 6th graders. If you are interested in more information please attend a meeting in the library during ER on Wednesday 9/23 (Day1). This meeting is for interested 6th graders only.

This also marks the first year for the Junior Reading Olympics, which is a division for 4th and 5th grade students. This group reads different books, meets on different days, and attends a different competition than the 6-8th grade team. Any 5th graders interested in finding out more should attend a meeting in the library during ER on Tuesday 9/22 (Day 3). This meeting is for interested 5th grade students only.

Attention all FFA members: Our first meeting is TODAY during ER in the AUDITORIUM. Please check in with your ER teacher first and then report to the Auditorium with your backpack for the end of the day. You will be dismissed to your bus from the meeting. If you are in Band or Chorus as well as FFA, please come to the FFA meeting first.
