~Clubs & Activities~

Attention Past Renaissance Club Members:

Renaissance Club members will begin meeting this Thursday, September 24th. Meetings will be held each Day 2 in Mrs. Light's room, D-5. Throughout the year, Renaissance Club will manufacture the Renaissance Cards students receive based on their excellence in academics, organize and run the Pennies for Patients service project, as well as brainstorming monthly rewards for Renaissance Card holders. If you are interested in joining Renaissance Club, please see Mrs. Light or Mrs. Ostimchuk.

This year we will be opening Reading Olympics to 6th graders. If you are interested in more information please attend a meeting in the library during ER on Wednesday 9/23 (Day1). This meeting is for interested 6th graders only.

This also marks the first year for the Junior Reading Olympics, which is a division for 4th and 5th grade students. This group reads different books, meets on different days, and attends a different competition than the 6-8th grade team. Any 5th graders interested in finding out more should attend a meeting in the library during ER on Tuesday 9/22 (Day 3). This meeting is for interested 5th grade students only.
